Dear Nancy:

Recently I shipped to you a package containing the current records of the Southeastern Chapter, A.A.L.L. I had previously sent a package to you containing the old records of the Chapter. Both packages were sent insured mail. Please let me know if you received these two packages.

When all of the outstanding checks clear the bank, I will send you the bank statements and the check stubs. That will then be all of our records in my possession.

Sincerely yours,

Bill
